Marnie

There are no changes to the R1-5 land use regulations. You got the notice because the Three Creeks Special Planning Area that includes your property is going away with this comp plan update. Sorry for confusion.

Subject: Question re notice

I received a notice regarding the Comprehensive Plan Update that says my property might be affected by changes that are being considered. The notice says my property is currently zoned R1-5 and the proposed zoning is R1-5. My property ID # is 185667016.

Are changes being made in the uses or land use regulations in the R1-5 zone?

Wondering why I'm being notified there are changes that may affect my property?

Thanks!
